I got a text asking me to click on a link to reschedule a parcel delivery I'd missed. I was waiting for a parcel at the time, so I clicked on the link and was asked to make a payment. Luckily, my daughter told me the text is a scam and to ignore it, but how can I spot the signs of a scam for myself?

Parcel delivery scams are very common. They aim to trick you into giving away your financial details, so your bank account can be accessed.

If you're waiting for a parcel, and get a message that asks you to pay to get it, it's usually a scam. Delivery companies won't ask you to pay them through a link in an email or text. Don't click any links or attachments, but you can check if a link is genuine, by hovering your mouse over the link without clicking on it, or pressing and holding on the link on a mobile device. You should be able to see the address the link goes to - check carefully to see if it's the same as the company's official website address.

Other signs of a scam include bad spelling and grammar, and starting with a general greeting instead of your name. But scam messages can sometimes be sophisticated.

If there's something you're unsure about, don't feel pressured to act. You can check if something is a scam, using an online tool on the Citizens Advice website. Remember that scammers are clever and scams can happen to anyone.

Free, confidential advice and help is available from South Lakes Citizens Advice on any aspect of debt, consumer problems, benefits, housing, employment or any other problems.

St Peter's Churchyard
Volunteer Working Party will meet again
in the autumn
Saturday 20th September from 9.30am - noon.

As ever, don't worry if you can't easily fit into the these times, come later or leave earlier as it suits you. You will be warmly welcomed to make whatever contribution you can. Whilst we notionally meet at the main churchyard gate, the lych gate, and move on from there, it may be that nobody is immediately visible when you arrive and a quick walk round will enable you to find other volunteers.

If you can, please bring a pair of garden loppers, a pair of work gloves and be ready to join a sociable group making a difference to the churchyard. I look forward to seeing you,
Richard Simpson

Dear Friends,

Here are seven quotations, listed in alphabetical order, can you identify the source of each?

"Give us this day our daily bread"

"Happy and glorious / Long to reign over us,"

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times"

"May the force be with you"

"Never in the field of human conflict, was so much owed by so many to so few"

"To be or not to be"

"You'll never walk alone"

This was the challenge in a nationwide survey earlier this year. In May more than 2,000 people across the UK were asked to match these seven famous lines - spanning areas ranging from literature and history to popular culture - with their source, from a list of correct answers.

Which answer do you think came top, recognised by four-fifths (80.3%) of those surveyed?

It was the extract from the Lord's Prayer (80.3%) "Give us this day our daily bread" just ahead of Star Wars' "May the force be with you" (79.9%).

Overall, 89% said they had said or prayed the Lord's Prayer and 58% said they had done so in their daily life.

The survey gave people the full text of Lord's Prayer asking them to select the lines they found most meaningful. The phrase most commonly chosen was "...and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us" with 43% overall. These two phrases, deemed familiar and important by those surveyed, remind us of two vital priorities in life. The Lord's Prayer causes us to pray for daily food and daily forgiveness. We need the basic necessities of life, food sufficient for each day, and so we look to God, the giver of good things. But the other necessity of life is forgiveness, with the challenge that brings in our relationships with other people.

Again, the prayer focuses on God for that need also, that we personally seek forgiveness from him. Ultimately this part of the Lord's Prayer directs us to Jesus himself and the heart of why he came: He "suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God." 1 Peter Chapter 3 verse 18.

These well-known phrases from the Lord's Prayer stress that our needs are both physical and spiritual. We need to attend to both. The Lord's Prayer directs us to the one who provides for both.

Here are the results of the survey, in order of recognition:

"Give us this day our daily bread" – Lord's Prayer (80.3%)

"May the force be with you" – Star Wars (79.9%)

"To be or not to be" – Hamlet by William Shakespeare (73%)

"Happy and glorious / Long to reign over us," – National Anthem (63%)

"Never in the field of human conflict, was so much owed by so many to so few" – Winston Churchill (61%)

"You'll never walk alone" – Gerry & the Pacemakers, Anthem of Liverpool FC (58%)

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times" – A Tale of Two Cities, Charles Dickens (39%)
