A Prayer for the Month

Loving Father, We thank you for the gift of your Son, whose birth at Bethlehem we prepare to celebrate. Make our hearts and homes always open to him, that he may dwell in us for ever, and we may serve him gladly all our days, to the honour and glory of you name. Amen

(From a book of prayers written by Roger Pickering)

Dear Friends,

When the time was fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, to redeem those under Law. That sentence from the Bible (Galatians chapter 4 verse 4) makes an incredible claim: that Jesus was born at just the right time. The right time for God's plan and the right time in human history. We can consider some of the historical factors that meant this was the right time for the message of Jesus to take root in people's lives.

The Roman Empire achieved its success, partially, by the building of roads. Roman roads meant that the earliest Christians could travel with relative ease, and so the good news about Jesus, as a message for everyone, could spread quite rapidly. Contrary to Roman misconception, Jesus wasn't born in a remote corner of the Empire, but at the gateway to three continents.

Another factor favourable to the spread of the Christian message was the use of the Greek language as a common tongue of the Empire. While Latin was the legal and formal language of the Empire, Greek was the everyday language, used for commerce and culture. Money talks and Greek was its language; traders from different parts of the empire could reach a bargain by using the Greek language. The Bible of Jesus' day had already been translated from its original Hebrew into Greek, so the Old Testament promises of God were already in a form more accessible to many people. The first Christians had a ready-made vocabulary with which to talk about God to various nations and cultures.

Jesus was born at exactly the right time. We might wonder why God doesn't show himself now? Why does he not give some unmistakable sign that he is there, so everyone could be convinced? Is it not enough that God came to this world once and that human eyes saw what he did, in the words and deeds of Jesus Christ? Those eyes saw him on behalf of the whole human race. God doesn't have to perform any special encore by giving Jesus to be born every hundred years or so. The time was right for Jesus to come when he did.

The verse in Galatians explains not only the timing of Jesus' birth, but its purpose. He was born to die. He was born of a woman, just like every other human being, and that he was born under law, that is under the commandments of God from the Old Testament. The people of God in the Old Testament were to live lives that were obedient to the law of God, to show the world what God was like. The trouble is, they couldn't do it, and neither can we.

Jesus was born, lived and died under that requirement to obey God. He did so perfectly, to redeem/rescue those who disobey God, that is, anyone and everyone. We see his daily obedience in keeping the commandments every day, and his driven obedience in giving that life at the cross so that God's plan would be complete. His perfectly obedient life is given up at death to obtain forgiveness for those who will pin their hopes on him only. The great gift of Christmas is seen at Easter, in being bought back and brought back to God for ever.

The birth of Jesus of a human mother (which we celebrate this month) is hope and life to anyone born of a human mother. We can be born also into God's family through faith in Jesus. Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God. John chapter 1 verses 12-13

A very happy Christmas to you and yours, and every blessing for 2026.
