I was made redundant recently and now I'm finding it hard to keep up with my bills and am getting into debt - what can I do?

You don't have to face this alone. Citizens Advice is here to help you find a way forward. Firstly, make sure you've been paid everything you're entitled to by your former employer. Check your rights on Citizens Advice website. Free budgeting tools like the one on the MoneyHelper website can help you understand what money you have coming in and going out each month, and where you might be able to cut costs. Try to find your most recent bank and other financial statements. Make sure you include all your expenses. If your budget just doesn't add up and you need help to afford essentials like bills and food, you can find out if you are eligible for financial help on the Citizens Advice website. Don't ignore bills or letters about money that you owe. Prioritise paying your rent or mortgage, plus energy bills and Council Tax first. Not paying these bills has the most serious consequences. Speak to the organisations you owe money to – they might let you pay smaller amounts or take a break from payments.

For other types of debt like credit cards or loans, gather all the information on what you owe, create a budget, and contact your creditors to set up an affordable repayment plan. If you need help with this, contact South Lakes Citizens Advice. Our advisers can help to check if you're eligible for any benefits or financial support, and explore all the options for dealing with your debts.

Free, confidential advice and help is available from South Lakes Citizens Advice on any aspect of debt, consumer problems, benefits, housing, employment or any other problems. New opening hours:

The Bellringers at St Peter's Church Heversham have been working on tidying up the bell chamber room. Included in this work are the installation of new louvres and gale breaking materials - stopping wind and rain penetrating the Bell Chamber. Also paint decorators are painting the head stocks of the bells and the metal frames supporting the bells the original colour of bright red.

1976 - A little bit of history Taylors of Loughborough Foundry dismantled the old wooden headstocks and wooden bearings, with the help of volunteers from the Furness and Local Volunteers. The bells were lowered then taken to Loughborough. The bells had to be tuned and given a quarter turn so as when reinstalled in the tower the clappers do not strike on the same place on the bell.
 1979 - It took approximately three years for the bells to be reinstated and they were blessed by the Bishop of Carlisle. The reinstalment was by Taylors of Loughborough and helped again by local volunteers.

We would like again to thank all who helped from our local Heversham band of Ringers.
George Handley

A Prayer for the Month

A Pentecost Prayer

O God,
 who as at this time did teach the hearts of your faithful people,
 by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit.
 Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort,
 through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour. Amen.

Dear Friends,

I meet many nice people. Sometimes some of those nice people will say to me with a smile, "I don't go to church because I don't need to go to a building to pray to God." They assume that is the final word on the matter and their reasoning overrides the Bible: ""Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another" (Hebrews 10:25). It is true we do not need a building in which to pray, a church building is not the temple in Jerusalem, which had a central and vital function in the faith of the Old Testament.

But when I hear the above sentiment, given with a smile, I smile right back, "And who said that is the main reason for going to church?"

From the first day of the Christian church, we read of their priorities: They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. (Acts 2.42).

The first Christians met at organised services in the temple courts, and informally, in their homes. While prayer was certainly one component of their life together, it was not the sum total of it; nor is the sole or even primary purpose for our regular church services today.

The apostles' teaching, the disciples' words about the Jesus they had seen and heard, animated everything. That was and remains the priority of a church true to the apostles. Their words are still with us, in the pages of the New Testament. God's words to us, heard as the Bible is read and taught, are surely more important than our words to God (unless we have a massive ego!)

Without knowing what God says, how can we know what God is like? how can we be sure he is good and loving, and actually hears prayer? How do we know that the prayers we offer are pleasing to him and are in line with his plans for us and for the world? Is it not more important we learn what God wants from us before we make demands of him? Saint Paul gave this instruction about what should undergird a church meeting: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. (Colossians 3.16)

The meeting together of the church as we hear the Bible is read and taught helps to guard against eccentric and odd readings of the Bible; it may bring new truths to light and old truths back to our memories. As we hear the same Scripture together so we can encourage one another from it in our conversations. The Bible can inform our prayers in a deeper way. Praying with others in the fellowship of the church lifts us from offering a personal shopping list to God, as we are called to pray for his world and church, and the needs of our community. We gather regularly in Holy Communion so that the focus of our faith and thanksgiving is in the sacrificial rescue Christ brought us, and not simply what we can get from God.

There is no church where you will find people who have made it, or are experts; you will find people who get it wrong at times, who struggle and fear. But I hope you will also find a welcome, humour and people who will journey with you, whatever church door you may enter.
